TAVING now become permanently located in our new store at the old stand, with every appointment of a complete and up-to-date temple of music, we have a word to say to our friends, and to others whom we hope to make our friends, which ought to be interesting.

The largest and most reliable houses in all prominent lines of business, in nearly all the larger cities of the country, have adopted the one-price system in dealing with their customers. As the leading music house in the intermountain territory, and disposed at all times to deal fairly and frankly with any who may favor us with patronage, we have likewise adopted the policy of holding firmly to one price on all our pianos, according to their value and merit.

We realize how important-indeed, how imperative-it is, in making uniform prices on pianos, to have those prices as low as good business judgment will permit; and, in accord with our purpose to make ours the most popular and trustworthy piano-house in the intermountain region, we have carefully reviseed our whole price schedule,, and every piano in our extensive warerooms will be marked in plain and reasonable figures, so that "a child can buy as safely as a man."

To make our position still secure and attractive, we have decided to handle only such pianos as are made by manufacturers of long standing and thoroughly proven reliability. In this way we relieve intending purchasers of all doubt as to the real merit of stanos offered for sale by us, according to the relative prices placed upon them. In addition to such assurances, buyers will have the strong moral guarantee of our well-known and responsible company.

For several years we have been exclusive agents in Utah, Idaho and Nevada for the Pianolas and Pianola-Pianos, embracing under one name, control and ownership the Weber, Steck, Wheelock, Stuyvesant and Chilton Pianola-Pianos, all equipped with the best, and the best known inside player, the Pianola.

Recently, after carefully considering the character, possibilities and effectiveness of all mechanical players. the Steinway company decided upon the Pianola as the one player worthy to be associated with their fine pianos. and the Aeolian company will be in absolute control, in their American and foreign factories and agencies, of the Steinway Pianola-Pianos, and this arrangement places in our hands, as agents, the two great leaders among pianos, Weber and Steinway, fitted with Pianolas, and four others of scarcely less merit. There are several good, "Not Quites," made by various concerns, and known as "inside players," but only ONE Pianola, invented, developed, patented and owned by the Acolian company of New York, and sold by them and their agents all over the world at ONE PRICE, according to the grade of piano in which they are placed.

It is a favorable fortune that enables us exclusively to represent this great institution, and it is our purpose to have at all times, in our Pianola department, a complete line of these world-famous instruments. They contain the best and most effective devices yet worked out for automatic playing, and the three most ingenious, most effective, most human attachments are found ONLY in Pianola-Pianos. It is these wonderful devices, together with the consummate perfection in detail in other respects, which makes the Pianola the absolute and acknowledged LEADER of all automatic players.

Buying a Pianolo-Piano is like taking gold dollars; everybody KNOWS the gold dollar is the full measure of 100 cents, the fixed and ultimate unit of our American money, and an abosolute unit of exchange, every where. So with a Pianola-Piano; buy a Weber or a Steinway, or a Steck, and you have the best; buy a Wheelock, or a Stuvyesant, and you have the NEXT best. When one inquires what player you have, it is a matter of pride, and genuine satisfaction to reply, "A Pianola."

Another salient thing to have in mind is, that the Aeolian Company makes and furnishes about three-quarters of all the music rolls for player-pianos. Over 90,000 different selections, including the great classics, the higher order of miscellaneous compositions, and the best of all popular productions, are included in the catalogue and supplements of this company, and designed expressly for Pianolas and Pinola-Pianos, with their almost human interpreting devices. Nearly the whole realm of music is therefore open to the owner of a perfected Pianola-

As a special feature of our Pianola department, we have installed a FREE EXCHANGE LIBRARY, containing about 3,000 carefully selected rolls, set apart for the exclusive us of our patrons, and a neat catalogue, giving number, name and price of each roll, together with rules and regulations, has been printed, for our mutual

In addition to the unequaled line of Pianola-Pianos, we are sole agents in this and adjoining states for the famous WEBER and the Beautiful EVERETT pianos, the acknowledged peers of STEINWAY: the HARD-MAN, noted for high art in style; the KRAKAUER, a high-class favorite in music centers; the FISCHER, too well and favorably known everywhere to need comment; the PEASE, made and controlled by one family for over sixty-five years; the LINDERMANN, of equally long and honorable history; the LUDWIG, considered by many dealers one of the best moderate priced pianos in the market; the reliable and attractive MILTON; the beautiful sweet-toned HARVARD; and lastly, the handsome BRADFORD, and the excellent GILBERT: These last two are made especially for us, in cases of our own suggestion, and they are the best low-priced

We consider it an honor, and an exceedingly flattering tribute to the good character of Carstensen & Anson Company, that so many of the way-up piano manufacturers have fixed upon us as their only representatives in this great field. We shall endeavor to be found worthy, not only of their continued esteem, but of the good opinion and patronage of our own home people. Our president, Mr. John Dern, and Directors, Thomas Weir, Fred Dern, George D. Anson, A. B. Carstensen, J. H. Anson and W. H. Alexander, need no introduction to Salt Lake people; and Mr. Carstensen Mr. J H. Anson and Mr. Alexander, who are in active charge of the business are among the best informed piano mein in the west. Can any music house make a better showing or a more forceful bid for confidence and patronage than is candidly stated herein?

The first active steps which will have to do with the summer celebrations given by the Wizards of the Wasatch were taken Monday night at a meeting at the Commercial club, when a large number of the wards of the order was present. The meeting was addressed by H. Vance Lane, who has been connected with the Ak-Sar-Ben of Omatha, and who furnished a number of valuable suggestions to the Wizards.

The committee on resolutions reported that progress was being made and it was continued with instructions to prepare a resolution on the death of the late Fisher Harris. Some changes to be made in the incorporation were discussed and finally referred to a committee which is to report at a later date. H. J. Penfold, secretary of the Ak-Sar-Ben of Omaha, and Gus Renz, a leading member, will be invited to address a meeting of the Wizards to be held in a short time. The next meeting of the wards will be held Monday, Jan. 3.
